PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Resolution of Intention for Improving Miller Avenue, Between Maple and Chestnut Avenues.

The city board of trustees met in regular session in the city hall last Monday night with all members present.

A petition was received from Frank Farrell, manager of the South City Athletic Club, asking for an annual permit to give amateur boxing exhibitions in this city.

Upon motion of Trustee McGovern, seconded by Trustee Hickey, the petition was laid over to be acted upon at a future meeting and to give members of the board an opportunity to discuss the matter.

Applications were received from A. G. Bissett and O. Bianchini for the position of sprinkling wagon driver.

Upon motion of Trustee Kelley, seconded by Trustee Holston, A. G. Bissett was given the position, at the rate of $5 per day.

A communication was received from H. J. Vandenbos asking for a rebate on his liquor license for a bar in the Linden Hotel, as he had retired from the business.

Upon motion of Trustee Kelley, seconded by Trustee Hickey, the rebate was refused.

A communication was received from the San Mateo County Development Association making inquiry about the appointment of a member of the board to serve on the board of governors of the association during the coming year.

Chairman Cunningham, who served in that capacity during the past year, appointed Trustee Hickey, which was approved by the board.

A communication was received from the local board of school trustees asking that the fire hose house on the grammar school lot on Grand avenue be moved, as the work of grading and improving the lot would soon commence.

Contractor Chas. Johnson was given permission to plank the sidewalk in front of the grammar school house securely to permit the crossing of auto trucks containing asphaltum for the basement of the building.

Superintendent of Streets Kneese was authorized to have the weeds along both sides of Grand avenue cleared off, and also to have trenches dug along the same avenue to learn what condition the lateral sewers are in.

Many claims against the city were allowed and warrants ordered drawn to pay same.

An ordinance defining the boundaries of Miller, Maple, Spruce, Magnolia, Orange, Eucalyptus and Chestnut avenues, and establishing official elevations on Miller avenue, between the east line of Chestnut avenue and the west line of Maple avenue, was, upon motion of Trustee Hickey, seconded by Trustee McGovern, adopted.

A resolution providing plans and specifications for the grading, laying concrete gutters and curbs and artificial-stone sidewalks on Miller avenue, between Maple and Chestnut avenues, was, upon motion of Trustee Mc-

Govern, seconded by Trustee Kelley, adopted.

Trustee Hickey introduced Resolution of Intention No. 2, for the same work, which was adopted.

Upon motion of Trustee McGovern, seconded by Trustee Holston, Dr. H. G. Plymire, E. E. Cunningham, E. N. Brown, W. L. Hickey and Geo. A. Kneese were reappointed as members of the city board of health for another term.

Monthly reports from city officials were presented, as follows:

City Clerk Smith—Cash on hand April 1, 1912, $30.69. Receipts during April—City taxes, $2574.89; peddlers' licenses, $20; liquor licenses, $881.25; recorder's court, $55; dog licenses, $12; delinquent taxes, $4.76. Total, $3528.59. Expenditures, as per warrants drawn, $918.33. Cash on hand May 1, 1912, $2610.26.

The treasurer and marshal's reports agreed with the clerk's.

Recorder Rehberg reported he acted on eight misdemeanor cases during April, from which fines to the amount of $27.50 had been collected.

Poundmaster Welch reported he had impounded fourteen cows and five horses during April.

The report were accepted and ordered filed.

Upon motion of Trustee Hickey, seconded by Trustee Kelley, the bonds of Clerk Smith and Treasurer Kauffmann were accepted.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS TOLD IN BRIEF

For Sale—White Leghorn laying hens. Apply to Mrs. S. Bankson, 798 Linden avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McSweeney entertained the Thursday evening whist club at its last meeting.

J. T. Rogers, father of the late J. E. Rogers, who has been here during the past year, left for his home in the East Wednesday.

W. J. Martin, local agent for the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company, left Wednesday night for an extended trip through the East.

The South City Restaurant has changed hands. Hereafter it will be conducted by H. J. Nussberger. A specialty will be made of first class short orders.

A dog bit three employees of the Steiger Terra Cotta and Pottery Co. yesterday afternoon. This morning Marshal Kneese was hunting for the dog to give it the usual dose.

At the last meeting of the local school trustees a contract for sand boxes was awarded to T. J. Quinn. Two modern fire extinguishers were purchased from T. Edward Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Bankson have traded their property, corner Linden and Aspen avenues, for a ranch near Sebastopol, Cal., and expect to vacate their home in about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Vanbenbos, long residents of this city, have gone to Brussels, Belgium, where they expect to reside for the next two years. Their daughter Adrienne is there receiving a musical education.

At a called meeting of Grace Guild on May 3d it was decided to resume the regular work and meetings of the Guild, the next meeting to be Friday, May 17th, when all the ladies of the town who are interested in the work are invited to attend.

H. A. Wolgeven and Chas. Fenger, formerly proprietors of the South City Restaurant have leased the Linden Hotel from Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Vandenbos, and in future will conduct it in the same first class manner that has heretofore prevailed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schneider attended the Rose Carnival at Santa Rosa last week and later visited Petaluma, returning home Monday. They reported a very enjoyable trip, but Mr. Schneider says South San Francisco's cool breezes feel good to him.

Dr. H. G. Plymire has received information that the brains of the calf owned by E. N. Brown, the dog owned by E. W. Langenbach and the dog that bit Frank Murray showed positive traces of negri or rabie germs. Dr. Plymire has started giving Mr. Murray the Pasteur treatment.

City Marshal Kneese up to yesterday has killed thirty-seven unmuzzled dogs. This city has become conspicuous by the absence of stray dogs on its streets. The marshal urges that the basket muzzle, used in San Francisco, be obtained by dog owners. A hint to some business man in this city.

About three weeks ago Mr. Nelson McCuen of Oakland was stricken with what is feared will prove a fatal stroke of paralysis. Mr. McCuen is quite well known here, he having married one of our pioneer residents, Mrs. Flora Werner, mother of Howard Werner, about five years ago.

The preliminary examination of J. A. Marshall, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from several merchants in this city a few weeks ago was going on in the city hall when The Enterprise went to press. The case was presided over by Justice Davis. Later—Marshall was bound over to the superior court with cash bail set at $1500.

The ladies' afternoon euchre club was entertained by Mrs. W. H. Cooley on Friday (May 10th) at her home 205 Emerson street, Palo Alto, Cal. Mrs. Cooley served a bounteous luncheon, after which the usual ten games were played. Those present were: Mes-

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Ordinance Providing for the Destruction of Unmuzzled Dogs Adopted—Officers to Enforce Law.

The county board of supervisors met in regular session in Redwood City last Monday.

Surveyor Neuman reported to the board that he had completed the surveys of the county roads and requested that the board go over his work with him with a view to making grade changes if any be deemed necessary. It was agreed to spend yesterday and today in an inspection of the roads and Supervisor Brown was delegated to make the necessary arrangements for the trip.

Coroner Plymire rendered a report of the disposition that had been made by him of the personal effects of certain deceased persons.

A communication was received from District Attorney Swart making known necessary rules adopted by him in regard to giving opinions to the board or to the county officers and in the matter of approving claims.

The communication was accepted and ordered filed on motion of Supervisor Brown seconded by Supervisor Casey.

Ordinance No. 49, passed by the council of San Francisco, and Ordinance No. 38, passed by the council of Daly City, were received by which that portion of the Mission road within these cities is turned over to the county for the state highway.

Supervisor Casey advised that the ordinances be held until it is definitely known that the highway is coming through Daly City and down the Mission road.

The right of the highway commission to omit any section of road in building the state highway down the Peninsula was questioned by Supervisor Brown. The board should appeal to the attorney general and failing to get an opinion from him should employ special counsel to fight for the people's rights.

The chairman agreed with Supervisor Brown in his opinion that the highway commission was not acting fairly in refusing to build the road through the incorporated cities. He held that it is required of the commission that all of the roads be "continuous" and they would not be such if the cities were not treated the same as the rest of the county.

Supervisor Casey held that the primary object was to get the road even though concessions may have to be made by the incorporated towns to get it. Already a contract is about to be let for building the first five and one-half miles of the highway in this county, which will be the first work to be done in the state.

Chas. M. Morse, editor of the San Mateo Leader, said that the $18,000,000 available for road work was insufficient to provide all the roads that were needed and it was the desire of the commission to make as good a showing as possible. While it might be inconvenient and inadvisable to the incorporated cities to give up any of their streets for the highway it seemed to be the only course available. The cities cannot afford to construct such a road as the commission might prefer and many of them are pursuing such a course as that of Daly City and South San Francisco. The commission is willing to accept the streets.

The ordinance restraining dogs from running at large was taken up and adopted on motion of Supervisor Casey, seconded by Supervisor Brown, and the clerk was directed to send a copy to each of the county papers for publication. The ordinance is published in another column of this issue of The Enterprise.

On motion of Supervisor Brown, seconded by Supervisor Blackburn, each member of the board was authorized to employ a special officer to enforce the ordinance at a salary of $25 per month, and to destroy all dogs that are found running at large not muzzled. For each of such animals destroyed the officer is to receive $1, he to furnish proof of having killed the animal.

W. G. Beattie was re-elected county health officer on motion of Supervisor Casey, seconded by Supervisor Brown.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

After being closed for many months Grace (Episcopal) Church will be reopened on Sunday, May 12th. Service at 8 p. m. The Rev. Frank H. Church will officiate and will be pleased to see at that service not only all members of the Episcopal Church but also all who are not affiliated with any other Christian body in the town.

Announcement will be made at this service of plans for the immediate future, which will depend largely on the attendance in response to this invitation.

CARNIVAL QUEEN VOTES TO BE GIVEN AWAY

In order to create more interest in the Carnival Queen contest, The Enterprise will give 100 ballots good for 100 votes absolutely free to anyone bringing a one-year's cash new subscription to this office.

This will be a good way to obtain many votes for a candidate with only a little exertion. The Enterprise will purchase blank ballots in large quantities. Just see what a chance you will have to help a friend.

The subscription price of The Enterprise is $2 a year. Bring in a new name with $2 and receive 100 blank votes free and cast them for any candidate you wish.

TAFT ANSWERS COL. ROOSEVELT

President Exposes Duplicity of His Old Friend.

REPLIES TO EVERY CHARGE.

Produces Proof That Roosevelt Deliberately Misrepresented Him In This Campaign—Declares Him Menace to Republic and to Prosperity.

President Taft in three speeches in Massachusetts on April 25 personally answered the misrepresentations of Theodore Roosevelt of the position of the president with respect to the issues of this campaign, with respect to his administration and of himself personally. The president said he regretted the necessity of speaking plainly about his "old friend," to whom he frankly admitted a personal obligation. The president said, however, that the situation created by Mr. Roosevelt's personal attacks on him and his administration made further silence intolerable.

The basis of the president's reply to Mr. Roosevelt was the well known "square deal" maxim of Mr. Roosevelt. As he answered each Roosevelt charge the president inquired, "Have I had a square deal?" In order these subjects were treated by the president.

Misrepresentation of the President's Speeches.

First.—Under this heading President Taft declared that Mr. Roosevelt had deliberately misrepresented him when he said, "Mr. Taft defines the issue when he says that our government is and should be a government of all the people by a representative part of the people."

"The excerpt which Mr. Roosevelt uses is taken from my speech at Toledo," said the president. "It is garbled. I did not say this 'should be' a government of all the people by a representative part of the people. I said it 'is' a government of all the people by a representative part of the people, and it is. I pointed out that this government of ours is a government by the adult voting males in order to show the necessity for constitutional restrictions to protect the nonvoters among the people against the possible injustice and aggression of a majority of the voters. Was it honest, was it fair in Theodore Roosevelt to seize one sentence from a speech to garble it and then give it a meaning which he knew from the context it could not bear? Do the people of Massachusetts think that this is a square deal?"

Unfair Charge as to Bosses.

Second.—In reply to the charge that "bosses" were supporting his candidacy President Taft pointed out that William Flinn of Pittsburgh, "one of the worst municipal bosses that the history of that state knows;" Walter Brown of Ohio, "the only boss in full commission in the state," and William Ward of New York were supporting Mr. Roosevelt. Senator Crane of Massachusetts, whom Mr. Roosevelt had mentioned, President Taft said, had "three times been invited by Mr. Roosevelt into his cabinet" and that Mr. Roosevelt had invited him to manage his presidential campaign in 1904.

"When I consider the eagerness with which Mr. Roosevelt has accepted in his various campaigns the assistance of Mr. Aldrich, Mr. Cannon, Mr. Penrose, Mr. Quay, Mr. Platt, Mr. Foraker and many other men," said the president, "I do not hesitate to say that it involves the most audacious effrontery on his part to attack me because men he characterizes as bosses are now supporting me. This is peculiarly unfair on his part in view of his well known political history and is another instance of his departing from the rule of a square deal."

False Statements in Lorimer Case to People of Illinois.

Third.—In this connection President Taft said Mr. Roosevelt had made it appear that a vote cast for Taft in Illinois would be a vote for Lorimer. "I have not seen Mr. Lorimer for two years and have had no communication with or from him," he said. "I did not ask his support. He did not tender it to me. Any influence he may have given in my favor was not because he liked me, but because he felt more bitter toward Mr. Roosevelt." The president then quoted in full a letter he had himself written to Mr. Roosevelt on Jan. 6, 1911, in which he outlined the steps he was taking to have Lorimer unseated in the senate and stating that Senators Root, Burton, Nelson and others had become interested at his suggestion. He pointed out to Mr. Roosevelt how they could best work together on the case.

"I make this letter public only to show that of all the people in the world Theodore Roosevelt ought to have known and did know that I was not a partisan of Lorimer, did not sympathize with him and never gave Mr. Roosevelt or any one else the slightest reason to suppose I had changed my mind. I submit to the people of Massachusetts that, with his intimate knowledge of the facts, Mr. Roosevelt's linking of my name with Lorimer's for the purpose of inducing the people of Illinois to vote against me on account of their feeling against Senator Lorimer was not giving me a square deal.

Change of Front on Reciprocity.

"Fourth.—Mr. Roosevelt," said the president, "now seeks to take advantage of the supposed feeling among the farmers of the country against the reciprocity agreement with Canada which I made and induced congress to adopt, but which Canada finally rejected. I would not object to this as a legitimate argument in a political controversy against me and in his favor if the fact were not that I consulted him ten days before I made the agreement, stated the arguments pro and con, especially the effect of it on agricultural products, and asked him to confer with his colleagues on the Outlook as to its wisdom and public benefit and let me know his and their judgment. He replied approving the agreement in the most enthusiastic terms and complimenting me for having brought it forward."

The president then made public a letter of his own to Mr. Roosevelt, dated Jan. 11, 1911, and a reply from Mr. Roosevelt the following day. In his letter the president declared he signed the Payne tariff bill not only because it was a better law than the Dingley law, but because it was a concession by the Republican party that downward revision was necessary and because the old doctrine that what was needed was a Chinese wall had been departed from.

Admitting that while it might temporarily have a tendency to reduce the cost of food products, the president said he believed it would in the end tend to a stability of food prices. The president said also, "We shall get a revision, not as heavy a one as I would like, but a substantial one and equivalent certainly to the French reciprocity treaty (between Canada and France) and probably more—on manufactures." He also pointed out that Canada's entire business after the adoption of the treaty would then be conducted through the United States. To this letter Mr. Roosevelt replied:

It seems to me that what you propose to do with Canada is admirable from every standpoint. I firmly believe in free trade with Canada for both economic and political reasons. As you say, labor cost is substantially the same in the two countries, so that you are amply justified by the platform. (Republican, 1908.) Whether Canada will accept such reciprocity I do not know, but it is greatly to your credit to make the effort. It may damage the Republican party for awhile, but it will surely benefit the party in the end, especially if you tackle wool, cotton, etc., as you propose. Ever yours,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"I submit that Mr. Roosevelt's course on reciprocity is not in accord with the square deal," said the president.

Charges of Fraud.

Fifth.—Concerning the charge that he had "received stolen goods," the president characterized the charge of Mr. Roosevelt and Senator Dixon as "insulting" and "hysterical." He pointed out that the charge with reference to Kentucky had been shown to be untrue in the Kentucky convention itself, where the charges were withdrawn; that in New York the Roosevelt committee had a recourse to the courts, but did not take it, and that in Indianapolis the charge of fraud was made "before the polls were opened."

"The truth is," said the president, "that it has been perfectly evident from the first that the deliberate plan of Senator Dixon has been to claim everything exultingly and with the utmost confidence and to meet the reports of the election of adverse delegates by directing in advance the bringing of trumped up contests. It is hardly necessary to say that this is not in accordance with the square deal."

The Unfounded Charge as to the Use of Patronage.

"Sixth.—I do not deny," said the president, "that under the present system of appointments federal officeholders will be interested in politics and take part therein and will support those to whose appointment they attribute their preferment. Under present conditions, however, and under the policy which has been pursued in this administration there are in office today at least 70 per cent of those who were in office by appointment under Theodore Roosevelt. In view of his candidacy it is natural that a great number of these officeholders should favor him rather than me, and such is the fact, and Mr. Roosevelt cannot be ignorant of it. In spite of the very great activity of a number of such officers against me, not a man of them has been removed."

The president then cited the fact that federal referees in control of patronage in Alabama, Louisiana and Texas besides even governors of states supporting Mr. Roosevelt, all had their officeholders opposing the president. In view of his extreme fairness in the matter the president said: "The influence of federal officeholders in the Chicago convention will be less effective for any one candidate than ever before in the history of the party." The president then inquired if his treatment on this issue by Mr. Roosevelt was a sample of the square deal.

Roosevelt and Cannon.

Seventh.—President Taft said Mr. Roosevelt had charged that "I deserted the progressives and became a reactionary."

He told how, with the approval of Mr. Roosevelt, he had had a meeting with Joseph G. Cannon, the then speaker of the house, with a view to bringing about a revision of the tariff. This occurred before his own inauguration and after he had ascertained that Mr. Cannon could not be defeated for speaker in the house. At that meeting Mr. Cannon promised to help Mr. Taft "redeem the promises of the Republican platform." Subsequently Mr. Taft interviewed the Republican members of the house committee on ways and means to the same end. Mr. Roosevelt also approved of this step. Reviewing the passage of the Payne law, the president then said:

"Has Mr. Roosevelt ever condemned the Payne bill? Does he say he would not have signed it if it had been presented to him under the conditions that I had to meet? He has never said that as far as I know, and the New York platform of 1910, adopted by the convention of which he was a part, indorsed the Payne bill and approved its passage."

The president inquired if this was a square deal. He then reviewed some of the progressive achievements of his administration and went over the amendments to the interstate commerce law in detail, pointing out in each instance that practically every single objection Mr. Roosevelt now made to that law he has himself recommended, including the commerce court.

Repudiates His Own Trust Record.

Ninth.—Stating that he had taken frequent pleasure in upholding President Roosevelt's prosecution of illegal trusts, the president said: "Now I find Mr. Roosevelt coming the other way, denouncing the anti-trust law and denouncing prosecutions under it. He says that the decree in the Standard Oil case is ineffective, that the price of stock has gone up and that my administration is to be condemned because the decree was confirmed by the supreme court. The truth is that the decree as finally entered and enforced was drawn exactly as Mr. Roosevelt's attorney general in the bill, which by direction of Mr. Roosevelt he filed against the Standard Oil company, had asked that it be drawn."

The president then declared that both the decision against the Standard Oil company and the tobacco trust had been more effective than Mr. Roosevelt would admit and that competitive conditions had been restored and better prices were now being paid than ever before to the tobacco growers and the producers of crude oil.

Concerning Mr. Roosevelt's proposed plan to abolish the anti-trust law and regulate the trusts, he said he had offered no constructive plan whatever except for the president to separate the "good" from the "bad" trusts, a process which offered no stability to business and "amounted to nothing in the end but the establishment of a benevolent despotism."

Who Represents the Interests In This Contest?

Tenth.—In reply to the charge that he represents the interests in this contest, the president said the record of his administration afforded the best answer. His long record of prosecutions, without fear or favor, he said, "must show to a fair minded public that this administration has no favorites among lawbreakers or those seeking special privileges."

A Menace to the Whole Business Community.

"Eleventh.—One of the real reasons why Mr. Roosevelt ought not to be selected as a candidate of any party is the natural distrust the whole business community will have in respect to the measures which Mr. Roosevelt will propose in order to effect a revolution in the interest of social justice which he advocates so strongly and defines so vaguely," declared the president. Stating that Mr. Roosevelt's pronouncement with respect to the control of business at first met with favor among certain business interests, the president said the program outlined by his Columbus speech had so greatly alarmed business that it could only contemplate the danger to the security of all business by his threatened undermining of our constitutional government and his attack upon the independence of the judiciary.

"I affirm that the nomination of Mr.

FOUNDERS OF THE CITY OF SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO

THE SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO LAND AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY designed in its original plan to make of South San Francisco a great manufacturing center. With that object in view, it originally purchased 3500 acres of land in San Mateo County, on the bay front, five miles south of the City of San Francisco. Since the original purchase, the company has added greatly to its holdings by the purchase of large tracts of adjoining lands, giving to it a perfect environment for the complete development of a great manufacturing city.

The faith which this Company had in its enterprise has been manifest to everyone by the large expenditure it has made in the development of this property. Every foundation which goes to make a perfect condition for manufacture has been already solidly installed, and is a rapidly growing city; it is a railroad terminal; it is on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and accessible to all railroads; has deep water communication; owns and operates for its industries a railroad connecting with the Southern Pacific and the water front; has electric street car service from factory to Town, and direct to San Francisco; has an Electric Light and Power Company; owns an independent Water Works, and has an abundance of fresh water for factory and house; has wharves and docks; a perfect sewerage system; a Bank and a Town Hall; and a population of over 3000 people an extensive and fine residence district, where everyone may secure lands at reasonable prices and on favorable terms, as homes for themselves and their families.

FACTORY SITES

can be obtained from the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company on most reasonable terms.

The completion of the Bay Shore Tunnels has placed South San Francisco on the main lines of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and forty passenger trains per day connect it with the outside world.

Owing to the completion of the Dumbarton Bridge and Cutoff, South San Francisco will soon have all railroads which center in San Francisco passing through its midst.

Many industries are already established here, chief of which are the Western Meat Company, the Wool Pullery, the Soap Works, the Steiger Pottery Works, the W. P. Fuller White Lead Works, the South San Francisco Lumber and Supply Company, the Pacific Coast Steel Company, the Pacific Car and Equipment Company, the Standard Corrugated Pipe Works, and other enterprises, all of which are in operation to-day. The Meese Gottfried Machinery Company and the Enterprise Foundry of San Francisco have each recently made purchases of land, and South San Francisco is plainly destined to fulfill all that its promoters had hoped.

Next Tuesday preferential presidential primaries will be held in California. The Enterprise believes the Republicans of the state should be loyal to President Taft, as he has fulfilled his obligations in a high-minded way and is deserving of a second term. It should not be said that the people of this state are ungrateful for the great influence he exerted in having San Francisco chosen as the location of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Republicans of San Mateo county, do your duty and stamp a cross in the square for the group of candidates preferring president Taft for renomination.

MEETING OF FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEE

The Fourth of July general committee held a meeting last Wednesday afternoon.

Several letters of acceptance of invitations to attend the celebration were received from county officials.

Arrangements were perfected to have a baseball match for the county championship, and a volunteer firemen's hosecart race. A beautiful silver cup will be awarded to the winning team.

It was the opinion of the committee that a grand fireworks display should wind up the festivities on the night of July 4th.

The entertainment committee was instructed to engage music for the four-days' carnival.

It was decided to give a grand free barbecue on July 4th.

The finance committee was directed to start the collection of funds from the business men and citizens to help defray necessary expenses.

The literary committee reported that probably Samuel Shortridge of Menlo Park, the noted orator, would deliver a patriotic address on July 4th.

A press headquarters will be established in the city hall for the convenience of outside newspaper men.

An effort will be made by the committee to have the railroad companies make a material reduction in round trip passenger rates to this city during the four-days' celebration.

The committee will hold its next meeting in the city hall next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at which time all sub-committees and committees from the various fraternal orders in this city are especially urged to be present.

SHOULD BE BUILT

The Mission Promotion Association has delegated John T. Flynn to urge the public welfare committee of the San Francisco supervisors to request the United Railroads to establish a waiting station at Fifth and Market streets for the accommodation of suburban passengers who use the San Mateo cars. Because of the quarter and half hourly schedule on which the suburban cars are run, patrons are greatly inconvenienced by being compelled to stand in the street waiting for cars.

FRATERNAL ORDERS

(BY HARRY EDWARDS.)

The Glorious Fourth.

To the Officers and Members of the Various Subordinate Tribes, Lodges, Groves, Aeries, Camps, Homesteads, Etc., Located in San Mateo County and Elsewhere—Greeting: Whereas, The Volunteer Firemen of South San Francisco, with the assistance of the various fraternal orders and business interests generally, have decided to celebrate and make the 4th of July, 1912, the culmination or winding-up day of a grand carnival which will commence July 1st.

The arrangements are progressing favorably, and realizing that without the assistance of the various fraternities within our borders it will not be the success anticipated. Therefore, we extend a general invitation to all the various fraternal orders, by whatever name they may be called, to join with us during the four-days festivities commencing July 1st, but more especially do we ask that you assist the various orders located here to make July 4th a day to be remembered. We wish every order in the county to be represented. The various social clubs are also invited to make a representation. We will do our part and promise you a never-to-be-forgotten time. If the order to which you belong has not received an invitation to be with us kindly notify Harry Edwards, chairman of the fraternal orders committee, and he will see to it that same is forwarded by the invitation committee of which T. L. Hickey is chairman.

Anyway, get busy and prepare for the event. You will be welcome. Tents will be provided as headquarters for the various orders, and open house the order of the day.

Look out for the Redmen. They promise to be on the warpath that day.

The Druids will give you a representation of old time altar worship. The Eagles will fly higher than ever before.

The Moose will give an illustration of the defending circle, which will be worth coming miles to witness.

The Knights of Pythias will be represented by the finest drill team in the county.

The Woodmen of the World will give an illustration of the home protected.

The Women of Woodcraft will present special features.

The Yeomen will appear in ancient costumes and with their new uniforms will be an attraction during the parade.

The various Portuguese societies will undoubtedly make a good showing. Those from the coast side will also be in evidence.

The Fig Leaf Club and Harmonie Club of San Bruno, the Bachelors' Club of San Mateo and many others will be in line.

The residents of South San Francisco are a unit to make this 4th the day of days and we hope the various sections of the county will assist us in showing to the balance of the state, that we are united for the purpose of betterment and uplift, our principle being one for all and all for one.

F. O. E.

The delegates to State Aerie to be held at Bakersfield, representing South City Aerie, No. 1473, will leave Sunday morning next on a San Francisco special from Oakland. Every Aerie in San Mateo county will be represented, who will also boost A. L. Lowe, deputy county clerk, into the office of County Vice President of the State Aerie, or I am not a prophet. Oswald Lockhart, T. C. (Brick) McGovern and John Fischer will represent 1473. Good luck, boys. Don't fail to bring home the bacon.

The following was received from Mrs. W. E. Durand, widow of our late Brother, Wm. E. Durand, and read at the last session:

To the Officers and Members of South City Aerie, 1473: Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and kindness extended to me during my late bereavement in the loss of my dearly beloved husband. Mrs. Wm. E. Durand.

On the same day that proof of death was given, $100 was paid over to the widow, the same being paid by South City Aerie, 1473. A committee was appointed to draw up resolutions of respect, consisting of Harry Edwards, Ambrose McSweeney and T. C. McGovern. The same was ordered published in The Enterprise, a copy to be forwarded to the widow and entered on the minutes of the Aerie.

THE INITIATIVE PETITION FOR A GREATER CITY

At every polling place on May 14th, in central California, omitting no counties, the Greater San Francisco Association will be represented by workers, who are to get signatures for the initiative petition that will provide for putting an enabling constitutional amendment on the ballot to allow San Francisco to widen its boundaries. The work of securing the men who are to do this service is now under way. They will be volunteers. The Greater San Francisco Association, through its executive committee, has planned to secure at least 40,000 signatures to the petition on May 14th, if possible. The reason that May 14th is selected as the day for accomplishing this is that the voters will be assembled, and the very fact that they are in the booths will be reasonable proof that they are qualified, as voters, to sign the petition. This move is accompanied by a letter which has been sent to all parts of central California. It is explained that the adoption of the amendment will not in any way compel any community to consolidate with any county and city, but will simply make it possible for communities that vote for consolidation to incorporate themselves under a charter to be approved by them, and a form of government that shall be satisfactory to them under the provisions of the amendment. The executive committee of the Greater San Francisco Association sets forth that absolutely every objectionable feature to which any community can take exception has been eliminated from the amendment.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS TOLD IN BRIEF

Considerable inconvenience was experienced by those of our residents who were in San Francisco Monday night, as no cars ran out this way after 6 p. m., owing to the damage sustained when lightning struck the high tension wires at Sonoma, Tuolumne county, through which the United Railroads receive its power. As there is no southbound Southern Pacific train after 6:30 until the 10 o'clock train a great many had a long wait.

G. Dilda, Pacific coast agent of the Italian directory of the United States, edited under the auspices of the Italian Chamber of Commerce of New York, by the Italian Directory Company of New York, was a visitor to this city on Thursday obtaining a list of the Italian business men and residents and other information in reference to factories, land, etc., to be published in the next issue of the directory. He was given considerable data by the secretary of the local improvement club.

Chas. Weber, who had been given a night's lodging by J. T. Rogers, late last Saturday night, stole a purse containing about $170 from Mr. Rogers and tried to get out of town by attempting to catch a fast moving south-bound freight train. He fell and his right foot was so badly crushed that it had to be cut off at the Red Cross hospital. Believing he was going to die, Weber confessed that he had stolen the money and stated that he had thrown it into the high grass alongside the railroad track. Mr. Fee, an employee of the Pacific Coast Steel Company, picked up the purse containing the money and returned it to Mr. Rogers.

IMPORTANT FOREIGN NEWS

American Consul William E. The trial begun in Berlin on March 26th of the men charged with being responsible for the wood alcohol poisonings which occurred at Christmas among the inmates of the Municipal Night Shelter for the Homeless, has ended. ORDINANCE NO. 254.

An Ordinance Requiring the Muzzling of Dogs.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1

Every dog not kept within a sufficient enclosure or not being effectually muzzled so as to prevent such dog from biting persons or animals, is hereby declared to be a menace to public health and safety.

SECTION 2

Every person owning or having control of any dog shall effectually muzzle it so as to prevent it from biting persons or animals.

SECTION 3

Every dog not kept within a sufficient enclosure or not muzzled as required by the provisions of Section 2 hereof, shall be immediately destroyed by any peace officer or pound keeper.

SECTION 4

Every person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than fifty (50) days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 5

This ordinance shall remain in full force and effect up to and including the 31st day of August, 1912. It is, however, expressly provided:

1st. That Section 2 hereof shall not apply to any dog while it is within a sufficient enclosure.

2nd. That Section 2 shall after July 1, 1912, not apply to any dog actually hunting under control of its master.

3d. That all muzzles shall be properly adjusted and shall be of a design approved by the health officer.

SECTION 6

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after fifteen (15) days after its passage.

Regularly passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo, State of California, the 6th day of May, 1912, in regular meeting of said Board by the following vote:

Ayes and in favor of the passage of said ordinance—J. T. Casey, W. H. Brown, J. M. Francis, P. H. McEvoy, D. E. Blackburn.

Noes and against the passage of said ordinance—none.

Members absent and not voting—none.

MARY BAKER EDDY'S
WILL HELD VALIDGift of Two Millions to the Scientist Church

The clause of the will of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, bequeathing the residue of her estate, valued at about $2,000,000, to the First Church of Christ Scientist of Boston, creates a "valid trust" in the opinion of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire. The court holds that the "residuary clause is not a gift to a church, but a gift for religious purposes, sustainable as a charitable trust."

The court's decision was given in the bill in equity brought by George W. Glover of Lead, S. D., Mrs. Eddy's son, in the Merrimack county Superior Court, to have the residuary clause declared invalid on the ground that it violated a New Hampshire statute, limiting the amount which can be bequeathed to any single church. Glover sought, in case the residuary clause should be declared invalid, to have the residue divided between himself and Dr. Ebenezer J. Foster-Eddy of Waterbury, Vt., Mrs. Eddy's adopted son, as the next of kin.

An amendment may be filed by the plaintiffs, according to the decision, since, should they be able to show that the bequest is for the pecuniary private profit of the church, the trust would be voided.

VISALIA "DRY" IN THIRD ELECTIONWomen Big Factor in Campaign
That Bars Saloons

By a vote of 994 to 658 Visalia voted dry again. The women cast a large vote against the saloons. Visalia has been dry since last July and the present election was instigated by the wet forces under the new initiative. The election was the most hotly contested in the history of the city. Prior to the election several petitions signed by farmers were presented to local merchants declaring that if Visalia voted wet they would do their trading elsewhere. The lack of saloons in that city, they declared, had solved the labor question.

Paralysis of the traffic of the port of Havana in consequence of the strike of longshoremen and lightermen, was made more complete by the harbor engineers going on strike, which resulted in the stoppage of all ferryboats and tugs. The boatmen on the motor and sailing boats also struck in sympathy with the longshoremen and lightermen. Passengers arriving at and departing from the steamers in the harbor are being transported in the lifeboats of the ships. The Government is reported to be making strenuous efforts to settle the strike on account of the embarrassment being caused by non-collection of customs duties.

TAFT ANSWERS

Roosevelt would extend through the business community a feeling of such distrust as to the future as to interfere with the good times which, if business is let alone and present conditions continue, will expand into the most encouraging prosperity, and this will bring happiness to wage earners who are more injuriously affected by disturbance of business than any other members of the community."

President on Third Term.

In conclusion the president took up the "third term" issue. Quoting Mr. Roosevelt's announcement that he would "under no circumstances" be a candidate again, the president said:

"If he had frankly announced that he had changed his mind no one would be disposed to hold him to a promise of that sort merely because he had made it. The promise and his treatment of it only throw an informing light on the value that ought now to be attached to any promise of this kind he may make for the future. The important fact is that his declaration was the statement of a principle essential to the welfare of the republic."

The president then reviewed Mr. Roosevelt's various claims for support on the ground of merit and concluded that he had offered no substantial, constructive remedy for any evil of which he complained. "We are left to infer, therefore, that the job which Mr. Roosevelt is to perform is one that may take a long time," said the president, "perhaps the rest of his natural life. There is not the slightest reason why, if he secures a third term and the limitation of the Washington, Jefferson and Jackson tradition is broken down, he should not have as many more terms as his natural life will permit. If he is necessary now to the government, why not later?"

Then the president concluded by saying: "One who so lightly regards the constitutional principles and especially the independence of the judiciary, one who is so naturally impatient of legal restraints and of due legal procedure and who has so misunderstood what liberty regulated by law is could not safely be intrusted with successive presidential terms. I say this sorrowfully, but I say it with the full conviction of its truth."

SAN JOSE CANINES
MAY BE MUZZLEDAs a Result of Dog Biting
Ordinance May Be Demanded

As the result of the biting of Joe Collins by a dog, the San Jose Board of Health will probably demand of the Council at its next meeting the passage of an ordinance requiring owners to muzzle all dogs. As Collins was standing on a corner the dog ran up and seized the man's leg.

At its meeting the Board of Health took cognizance of the prevailing epidemic of rabies about the State and recommended to the Council that the muzzling ordinance be passed. Inasmuch as the Board has authority to demand the statute, it is expected that this action will be taken. Motorcycle Policeman Margason was instructed by the Police Chief to kill the dog that bit Collins, but was unable to find the animal.

In the cargo that went down with the Titanic was a $5000 shipment of orchids consigned to a San Mateo nursery. They had been sent from India and no expense was being spared to rush them through so that they would not die en route. The collection consisted of 500 plants. Agents of the company had searched the Himalaya highlands for months gathering the collection, which was one of the finest that has ever been shipped to America. Most of the plants were of the Vanda Caerulea, the color of which is light blue. It is said that this blue is nearer that of the sky than any that has been found in nature.

The will of Major Archibald W. Butt, filed in Washington, disclosed the fact that the one great wish of the President's aide is impossible of realization. It was that he should be buried in Arlington National Cemetery, and that the family name might be perpetuated there by a modest monument over his grave. In his will the young Army officer had set aside $500 for this purpose. In view of the disclosures in the will there is a strong likelihood that a movement will be started looking to a suitable memorial to Major Butt at Arlington, although his last resting place is in the ocean.

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 2.

A resolution of intention of the Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco declaring its intention to improve Miller Avenue from the west line of Maple Avenue to the east line of Chestnut Avenue, and declaring that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost thereof.

Resolved, by the Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco, That public interest and convenience require and that it is the intention of the Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco to order the following street work to be done in said city to-wit:

That that portion of Miller Avenue between the west line of Maple Avenue and the east line of Chestnut Avenue, including all street intersections, be improved by constructing concrete curbs therein on both sides thereof for the full length as above specified, except where such curbs are already constructed; and by constructing concrete gutters therein on both sides thereof for the full length as above specified, excepting, however, that portion of said Miller Avenue included between a certain line drawn through a point in the center line of said avenue, and at right angles to said center line, two hundred (200) feet east of the east line of Eucalyptus Avenue and a certain line similarly drawn through a point in the center line of said avenue five hundred (500) feet west of the west line of Eucalyptus Avenue; and by constructing artificial stone sidewalks therein on both sides thereof having a width of five (5) feet, commencing two (2) feet from the property line or boundary line of said avenue and extending five (5) feet toward the curb line, for the full length as above specified, excepting where such sidewalks are already constructed; and by filling in earth back of said curbs so as to bring sidewalks between curb and artificial stone sidewalks to official grade; and by grading said avenue for its full width from curb to curb for the full length as above specified so as to bring the surface of said avenue to official grade, except where such grading has already been done.

All work shall be done in accordance with the special plans and specifications heretofore adopted for doing said work and now on file in the office of the city clerk.

The Board of Trustees, under the authority conferred upon it by the provisions of that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California, approved April 7th, 1911, and known as the "Improvement Act of 1911," determines and declares that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said proposed improvements; said bonds shall be serial, extending over a period of nine (9) years from the second day of January next succeeding their date, and shall be issued to represent assessments of Twenty-five (25) Dollars or more remaining unpaid for thirty (30) days after the date of the warrant issued to the contractor, or five (5) days after the decision of said Board of Trustees on an appeal; an even annual proportion of the principal sum of each bond shall be payable by coupon on the second day of January of each year after its date and until the whole is paid, and interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of seven (7) percent per annum on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest is paid; and said bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of said "Improvement Act of 1911."

"The Enterprise," a weekly newspaper printed and published and circulated in said city, is hereby designated as the newspaper in which this Resolution of Intention shall be published, and the City Clerk is hereby directed to cause this Resolution of Intention to be published by two insertions in said newspaper in the manner required by said "Improvement Act of 1911."

The Superintendent of Streets shall, immediately, cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work and improvement and in front of all the property liable to be assessed, notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention, in the manner and form required by law.

I hereby certify that the foregoing Resolution of Intention was duly and regularly introduced and adopted by the Board of Trustees of the City of South San Francisco on the 6th day of May, 1912, by the following vote:

Ayes: Trustees G. W. Holston, T. L. Hickey, J. H. Kelley, J. C. McGovern, and F. A. Cunningham.

Noes: Trustees None.

Absent: Trustees None.

Heads of the Chicago Typographical Union have called a meeting to consider the dispute between the pressmen and the Chicago publishers. There were rumors that the printers might strike in sympathy with the pressmen, but President Lynch of the Typographical Union said that his men would remain at work. Efforts to induce the mailers to declare a sympathetic strike failed. The vote was almost unanimous against the proposed strike. The sale of papers went on almost as usual at nearly all points, except that the newsboys were guarded by policemen.

A Mixed Drink.
A cafe in Peoria which was famous for its beer was owned by a Bohemian and conducted actively by his son and nephew. The old man seldom had occasion to go behind the bar or to deal directly with the public in other ways.

One day, however, all hands were out of reach when a man came in to get a drink. To make the situation acute, he ordered a cocktail.

The proprietor knew of such things vaguely, but in a place where everybody came to drink Bohemian beer a cocktail had no place.

First he took a lemonade glass and put some ice in it. Then he poured from every bottle behind the bar and set the mixture before the customer. "There," he said. "You have everything but the license. Drink it."—Chicago Post.

Only Women in This Orchestra.

A woman's orchestra, named the Orchestra Femina, with Mr. Siegfried Wertheim as conductor, is the latest London novelty. Mr. Wertheim has been working for a long time gathering his forces together, for he decided that it should be an all British institution, and now he appears to have succeeded. He has got together forty women, every one of whom is capable of playing solo parts. Mr. Wertheim contends that in the course of his search he has come across some real "discoveries."

Hitherto in the case of such instruments as the oboe, bassoon, trombone and the heavier wind instruments there have been no women exponents of very high rank. Mr. Wertheim has discovered English players of such instruments who are gold medalists of London, Paris and Brussels.

The only feature about the performance of the Orchestra Femina that will not be all British will be the music. Mr. Wertheim shrugs his shoulders at that idea. His is to be a high class orchestra, and so he must rely on foreign produce for his programs, though popular music of English make will not be excluded.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES

Letting himself down head first into a barrel of rain water under the eaves of his home at Arcadia, Ind., Rev. Charles Martz committed suicide. He was 60 years old and had been a minister of the Christian church thirty years. Lately, it is said, he has been acting queerly.

A rifle bullet glancing from a log struck Dan Swem, aged 10, of Tacoma, Wash., in the temple, inflicting a wound from which the boy died. The shot was fired by Frank Hofius, aged 11. Both boys were students at DeKoven Hall, a private academy, and had stolen away from their classes to practice with the rifle.

Becoming confused in the dark recesses of the Vallejo Junction tunnel, near Port Costa, when they heard the whistle of an approaching train, Robert K. Lozolt, aged 24 years, and S. Anderson, aged 26 years, quartermasters on the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Umatilla, at dock at Port Costa, ran directly in front of the Southern Pacific passenger train No. 109, bound to San Francisco from Fresno, at 11 o'clock Saturday night, and were instantly killed. The bodies of the two sailors were mangled beyond recognition, their identity being made known only by letters in their clothes.

AMERICANS IN MEXICO NOT IN DANGER

Rebel Chief Orozco Refuses to Recognize Gomez

The plight of Americans on the west coast of Mexico appears to have been exaggerated, according to the report received at the War Department from Quartermaster Ely, in command of the transport Buford, which was sent to that coast to pick up distressed foreigners.

The general staff has again entered a sweeping denial of the many stories of the receipt of orders from Washington for the entrainment of troops for the Mexican border. General Wood said that no such orders had been given or were in contemplation.

General Pascual Orozco has refused to recognize the provisional Government established by Emilio Vasquez Gomez at Juarez last Saturday. Orozco on the march southward telegraphed Gomez, threatening him and his associates unless they left Mexico.

The creation of any civil government prior to the successful termination of the war has persistently been opposed by Orozco. In his telegram to Gomez, Orozco declares that he would have been glad to have had Vasquez Gomez come into the rebel zone and work with him in the interests of the revolution, but the Gomez Government in Juarez was a thing he could not countenance.

GUNMEN INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Principals in the Recent Tong War Are Formally Accused

Nine indictments were voted by the San Francisco Grand Jury, two charging murder and seven charging assault to commit murder against members of the fighting tongs who for weeks have been engaging in warfare in Chinatown. On Gun and Yee Chung San, already under arrest charged with the murder of Wong Yuk Sam, who was shot February 2d, and who died last Saturday, were the two against whom murder indictments were voted. The others were mere minor operators in the war of the tongs.

The investigation is a continuation of the inquiry began several weeks ago after a number of Chinatown shooting affairs. No Hop Sing men were indicted. The two men charged with murder are Suey Sing men, and the seven other indictments are against two Bing Kong men, two Suey Sing men and three Sin Suey Ying men.

A mother and her daughter were the principals of a double marriage performed by Justice of the Peace H. W. Lampkin at Redwood City. Richard W. Moreno claimed the mother, Margaret Bendewald, as a bride, while John Delrose, her future son-in-law, married her daughter, Lena Bendewald. The Bendewalds come from an old San Jose family. Delrose is a rancher of Evergreen, Santa Clara county, and Moreno is in business in San Jose.

For the purpose of raising funds toward the acquisition of a playground for the children, the Women's Improvement Club of Martinez held a food sale which netted a considerable sum.

Charles Williams, a ranch foreman employed near Stockton, pleaded guilty before Judge C. W. Norton to the charge of making a criminal assault upon Mrs. Fannie Sweet, wife of a Stockton merchant.

Santa Clara, having decided at the polls that a $60,000 grammar school building of wood is preferable to a $90,000 one of concrete and brick, will proceed to vote on a proposition to issue $60,000 worth of bonds for erecting the building.

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company of Sacramento has shown such a large increase in business over last year that the State Board of Equalization has assessed its corporation franchise tax at $27,000 more than was paid by the company last year.

Orchardists of Santa Clara valley say that the warm weather is forcing the fruit crops ahead speedily. Early apricots and peaches will be the result of the warm spell if it continues. Crop reports indicate that there will be a bumper yield of apricots, peaches, pears, prunes and cherries unless there is a heavy frost within the next few days.

Instead of buying its Pasteur treatment virus, used on people bitten by suspected rabid dogs or other animals, from the Government laboratories at Washington, the State Health Department will manufacture it at Berkeley for use in all the eight stations in the State. The continued delay in getting virus when it was most needed was the reason for this action.

The three lodges of Stockton Odd Fellows are now ready to go ahead with the work they have had in contemplation for some time—the construction of a building on their lot adjoining Odd Fellows' Hall on the south. It is proposed to put up a modern five-story structure, the fifth floor to be taken up in part by a roof garden. The building will cost about $125,000.

Because of a shortage of fish along the Southern California coast, wholesale prices have taken a jump of nearly 100 per cent within the past few days, and may go higher. Fishermen who have been in the channel for thirty years say the only reason they can give for the shortage is that tugs fishing with seines a mile long have destroyed many small fish and much spawn.

Picked clean by bandits, Thomas Rickard, a native of Grass Valley, and lately of Sinaloa, Mexico, arrived in Grass Valley with his wife, a Spanish woman. Rickard says that he fled from the mine he was working, taking with him sixteen bars of silver bullion, worth $600 each. His party was held up on the first day of their flight and robbed of everything but the clothes on their backs.

Orders have been received at Monterey from the War Department to send Company C of the Twelfth Infantry to Tia Juana. Company C will go into the field prepared for any emergency and with full fighting equipment. Each soldier was issued his summer underclothing and marching shoes. Besides this, each man carries emergency rations and several hundred rounds of ammunition.

A fine of a dollar for each mile per hour is the basis on which punishment will be meted out to automobile speeders who come before Justice of the Peace H. W. Lampkin, at Redwood City. At that rate convictions will come high for the scorchers who let out their high-powered cars to fifty and sixty miles per hour along the stretches of good roads. In the past a fine of $15 has been imposed for the first offense.

Two small boys, Fred Smith, aged 10 years, and Louis Schick, who is 12, both of San Mateo, were attacked by vicious dogs. Young Smith was bitten on the left arm and leg; Schick on one of his arms. Both boys were attended at the Red Cross Hospital. The Board of Health was notified of the cases, and will meet with the Trustees to consider the adoption of some such muzzling ordinance as is in effect in San Francisco.

An effort is on foot, fostered by citizens of Fairfield and Suisun, to dedicate Solano county's new Courthouse on July 4th and have a general celebration throughout the entire county. This idea is being fought by Vallejo because of the arrangements now being made for the annual two-day festival in that city on that date. The county seat promoters have applied to the County Supervisors for an appropriation to carry on the work.

For the first time in the history of the San Jose Juvenile Court, perhaps for the first time since the Juvenile Court was established in California, a married woman has been committed to a State school for reformation. The unusual proceeding was had when Judge Gosbey made an order committing Mrs. Fannie Besser Fiehnman to the Whittier School. Mrs. Fiehnman, as Fannie Besser, was brought before the Juvenile Court early last year as an incorrigible child, upon the petition of an aunt, who declared that the girl had got beyond her control and was frequenting houses of ill repute. She was committed to Whittier for the period of her minority. Sentence was suspended during good behavior. Later she married H. Fiehnman of Sunnyvale, and it was the husband himself who brought her into court.

Whether Justice Keogh accepts or refuses the demand of Harry K. Thaw for a jury trial on the question of his release from Matteawan, the hearing set for June 6th promises to run along for several weeks, and is likely to prove almost as expensive as either one of the trials, as the seven medical authorities who will be examined are scattered all over the country, and they will have to be found and commissions sent to them.

The third ship to go in search of bodies of victims of the Titanic disaster has steamed out of Halifax harbor for what is probably the last effort to recover bodies. The vessel is the Canadian Government steamer Mont Magny. She took coal for a two weeks' cruise and the White Star officials hope she will succeed in adding to the total of 305 bodies which have been recovered by the Mackay-Bennett and Minia.

George James, one of the three prisoners who escaped from the Nevada State penitentiary, was captured near Reno in a lumber yard and returned to the penitentiary.

GENERAL NEWS EVENTS

The Chamber of Industry at Saint Gall, Switzerland, has decided to participate in the Panama-Pacific Exposition, to which it will send a great collective exposition of Swiss embroideries.

The House of Representatives at Phoenix, Ariz., marked the end of its seventh week of business by passing eight bills, the most important of which was the measure providing a nine-hour day for women.

Senator William Alden Smith, chairman of the sub-committee which investigated the wreck of the Titanic, has returned to Washington from New York and announces that no more public hearings would be held.

The Kentucky State University has announced that chicken breeding will be added to its curriculum. A farm near Lexington, Ky., has been purchased, where the science of the hen will be studied by the students of the school.

The will of Mrs. Sarah Hale Witt-haus, who died in Paris on April 20th, directs that all her jewelry, valued at $50,000, be packed and put into a safe deposit box for twenty-one years, when it is to be equally divided among her granddaughters.

The United States will see that there is a fair election in Panama this summer, as it did in 1908. Reports show that there has been rioting in a part of the republic near David, involving the loss of at least one life, and this disorder threatens to extend.

Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, widow of General Grant, and her daughter, Princess Cantacuzene, sailed on the Kaiser Wilhelm II from New York. Mrs. Grant will accompany her daughter to St. Petersburg and remain on the Continent indefinitely. It will be her first visit to her daughter's home.

Inspired by sentiment for the "lost cause," students composing the senior class of the medical department of the University of North Carolina firmly refused the regular routine of instruction in the dissecting room because the subject for dissection was the corpse of a hero of the war between the States—the late Captain Edward Benton of Raleigh.

A Danish inventor claims to have made a discovery which will enable steamships to accurately locate icebergs and rocks at a distance of 1200 yards through either darkness or fog. He refuses to explain his discovery or give any details, but says it is very simple. He will offer the device to all the transatlantic steamship companies as soon as it has been patented.

Vincent Astor, who by his father's will becomes head of the Astor house, will return to Harvard in June, to take his examinations, according to letters received by friends in Cambridge. Young Astor has been away from college since his father's death in the Titanic disaster, and it was thought that his new responsibilities might prevent his returning to college.
